700 NATIONAL CONFERENCE COMMISSIONS AND AFFILIATES

CHAPTER I – NATIONAL CONFERENCE

701 CABINET

701.1 Purpose

The Cabinet is an organizational unit within the denominational framework that is designed to provide counsel and encouragement to the employed Evangelical Congregational leaders and to assure that our church's ministries and institutions are working together in unity to realize our denominational vision.

The Cabinet is not an official policy-making body. It does not vote on denominational initiatives, make formal recommendations to denominational bodies or regularly report to denominational bodies. It exists primarily to render encouragement to the persons the denomination has employed to give day-to-day leadership to Evangelical Congregational ministries and institutions.

701.2 Cabinet Leadership and Membership

The Cabinet shall be organized and led by the Bishop. Membership in the Cabinet will be limited to the full time employed leaders of Evangelical Congregational ministries and institutions, namely, the Bishop, Conference Ministers, Director of Global Ministries, ECCRV CEO, ETS President, and Twin Pines Executive Director.

701.3 Cabinet Meetings

The Cabinet will determine the frequency and location of the meetings.

701.4 Cabinet Agenda

A typical Cabinet meeting will include the following: Prayer requests, praises and prayer for one another including families and ministries, updates on each ministry/institution designed to equip Cabinet members to communicate what God is doing in the Evangelical Congregational Church as a whole, leadership development programs, for the employed leaders of the church, program development for the National Conference sessions. The program development items require reports to the National Ministry Team. These reports shall be submitted by the Bishop.

701.5 Cabinet Finances

Cabinet members will pay Cabinet expenses from their respective expense accounts.

702 COMMISSIONS

702.1 Commissions in General

A commission shall be an organizational unit charged with the implementation and oversight of one aspect of the purpose, mission, values, and vision of the church. There shall be five commissions:

- a. Church Health
- b. Church Planting
- c. Evangelism and Discipleship
- d. Global Ministries
- e. Leadership.

All commissions are under the authority of the National Ministry Team.

702.2 Commission Leadership and Membership

The Bishop shall chair the Church Planting Commission, Evangelism and Discipleship Commission, and the Leadership Commission. A Conference Minister, appointed by the Bishop, shall chair the Church Health Commission. The Director of Global Ministries shall chair the Global Ministries Commission. The Bishop and the chairpersons will appoint members, not to exceed twelve (12) including the commission chairpersons, to the commissions. The membership shall reflect the demographics of the denomination (e.g. age, gender, culture, geography). Demonstrated commitment to a commission's purpose shall be the most important qualification for commission membership. They shall also appoint the vice chairpersons and secretaries, and may appoint a member to convene and lead meetings, from among the members of the commission. Advisory members may be added as needed.

702.3 Commission Meetings

Commissions shall determine the frequency and location of their meetings and shall share this information with the Bishop. Commissions shall meet at least once a year. The Standing Business Rules of the National Conference will apply to the commission meetings.

702.4 Commission Agenda

The agenda of a commission shall be shaped by the tasks that are assigned to it by the National Conference and/or the National Ministry Team. There shall be five general tasks that are assigned to every commission:

- a. To carry out the denomination's purpose, mission, values, and vision, as they relate to the commission's area of ministry;
- b. To appoint committees, networks, task forces, and/or teams that are needed to accomplish the work of the commission, and to maintain contact with those committees, networks, task forces, and/or teams, and serve as a resource for them;
- c. To establish a budget and policies related to the commission's area of ministry;
- d. To continually evaluate denominational progress in the commission's area of ministry;
- e. To be an available resource for districts and local churches which are pursuing work in the commission's area of ministry.

702.5 Commission Finances

Each commission shall prepare a budget, which, with the exception of the Global Ministries Commission and the Church Planting Commission, will be submitted to the Finance Committee (see Discipline, par. 407) for inclusion in the denomination's general budget. The Global Ministries and Church Planting budgets will be submitted to the National Ministry Team for approval at its fall meeting.

703 Church Health Commission

703.1 The Church Health Commission serves the local church that is in decline and in need of renewal and redevelopment.

703.2 The commission shall give direction and oversight to a variety of programs:

- a. Vision 20/20 Ministry Teams are designed to assist a local church in conducting a SWOT (Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, Threats) analysis identifying core values and developing purpose, mission and vision statements;
- b. Natural Church Development Surveys/Consultations which serve as "health screenings" for local churches;
- c. Conflict Mediation, which is used when congregational conflict cannot be resolved by the congregation's leadership;
- d. Urban Network is designed to network and resource urban Evangelical Congregational churches that are committed to making disciples in the urban neighborhoods where God has planted them;
- e. Yoked Ministry is defined as two or three congregations yoked together in a charge relationship and sharing one pastor.

703.3 The commission shall also develop a plan for congregational mentoring whereby healthy congregations provide encouragement, counsel, resources and personnel to mentor congregations which desire to become healthy

704 Church Planting Commission

704.1 The Church Planting Commission serves the local church by implementing a philosophy and strategy of multiplication church planting. Multiplication church planting is defined as local churches planting local churches that plant local churches. Church plants multiply when local churches lead the way.

The denomination will continue to initiate plants during a time of transition, until such time that districts and local churches assume responsibility for planting. (See items 704.2.f, 704.2.g)

704.2 The commission shall provide promotional and teaching resources and events that will help every Evangelical Congregational Church identify its role in Evangelical Congregational Church Planting:

- a. Prayer Mobilization: The church must be mobilized to pray specifically and fervently for the needs of church plants and planters. The commission shall provide resources that facilitate prayer for church planting.
- b. Planter Assessment and Training: The commission will design and conduct centers to provide a constant supply of potential planters. The commission will identify excellent training resources for church planters.
- c. Parent Church Development: The commission shall work with potential parent churches to equip them to plant a church. It will also work with existing parent churches in supporting their work.
- d. Planter Coaching and Care: The commission will provide for the physical, emotional and spiritual well being of Evangelical Congregational church planters and their families. It will also train and assign coaches who will be the "first line" of encouragement and counsel for church planters.
- e. Financing and Promotion: The commission will launch a development strategy designed to raise awareness of and financial support for Evangelical Congregational church planting.
- f. Strategic Planning: The commission shall maintain and periodically update a master plan for Evangelical Congregational church planting that targets least reached communities where an Evangelical Congregational church could be planted.

- g. Policy Development: The commission shall establish the policies governing the work of Evangelical Congregational church planting.

705 Evangelism and Discipleship Commission

705.1 The Evangelism and Discipleship Commission aids the local church by providing direction, training and resources that will enable the local church to make disciples of Jesus Christ. The primary emphases of the commission will be:

705.1.1. Prayer: The Prayer Ministry Committee of the Mobilization Team shall be assigned to this commission and shall develop the corporate prayer life of the Evangelical Congregational Church by:

- a. Emphasizing worldwide, denominational and local church prayer movements
- b. Coordinating prayer initiatives and events
- c. Providing prayer training and resources.

The denomination's Prayer Coordinator shall chair this committee and shall represent the Evangelical Congregational Church on the National Denominational Prayer Leader's Network.

705.1.2 Biblical Teaching: A committee shall be formed to emphasize and apply the Evangelical Congregational Church's commitment to biblical teaching. This committee shall provide resources that will help pastors and laity to teach Evangelical Congregational doctrine and its application to culture as expressed in our Discipline's spiritual, moral and social standards. The committee will review and, as needed, revise catechetical resources, doctrinal tracts and position papers. The committee will also review proposed amendments to Part One of our Discipline to ensure compatibility with Evangelical Congregational doctrine before these amendments are presented to the National Conference.

705.1.3 Evangelism: A committee will be formed to give direction and oversight to the evangelistic initiatives of the Evangelical Congregational Church. The committee shall resource and train pastors and lay leaders for effective evangelism in their churches and communities. It will also network our denomination with other denominations and para-church ministries whose purpose is the evangelization of the nation and the world, e.g. Mission America, Campus Crusade for Christ, the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association, and other like ministries.

The focus of this committee will be evangelism in the context of established local churches in the United States. Evangelism through church planting and in world missions will be emphasized by other commissions.

705.1.4 Social Action: This committee will resource and train pastors and lay leaders to recognize and respond to "cultural crises" with Christ-like concern and action. It will also network our denomination with para-church ministries that are effectively responding to these "cultural crises," e.g., Focus on the Family, local crisis pregnancy centers, the NAE Social Action Commission, and other like ministries.

705.1.5 Christian Education: This committee will resource and train pastors and lay leaders to teach and equip children, youth and adults to live as fully devoted disciples of Jesus Christ. Several established ministries and networks shall be assigned to this committee including: the Evangelical Congregational Youth Network, Women's Ministry Network, resources and other educational ministries.

706 Global Ministries Commission

706.1 This commission serves the local church by providing a means of fulfilling the Great Commission to the ends of the earth.

706.1 The commission will accomplish its purpose by focusing on the following areas of ministry:

- a. Missionary Recruitment, Assessment, and Training: Assist in identifying those whom God is calling to this specialized form of ministry, examining their giftedness for this ministry, guiding them through adequate preparation, and enabling their appointment to areas of needed ministry.
- b. Missionary Care includes: spiritual, emotional and financial support and assisting approved missionary candidates and missionaries to raise necessary funding to serve on their approved fields.
- c. Providing a prayer support network to help missionaries maintain effectiveness in missionary service.
- d. Maintaining close contact through personal and office communications.

706.3 Mission Conferences: Partnering with and assisting in the development of national (self-governing, self-directing, self-supporting, and self-propagating) churches, with the goal of working together to reach those areas of the world which are the least evangelized and where there is not a viable and culturally appropriate witness of the gospel.

706.4 Global Ministries Resources:

- a. Providing curriculum and educational material to inform churches about Evangelical Congregational missionaries, their work and their needs;

- b. Preparing monthly prayer letters, quarterly newsletters, annual program materials in conjunction with the annual missions projects;
- c. Conducting rallies, workshops, training sessions, and conventions throughout the year.

706.5 Missions Networking: Cooperating with other denominations, para-church ministries and inter-denominational mission boards, so as to develop channels, through the provision of personnel and resources, toward the effective communication of the gospel, without necessarily exporting the name of the Evangelical Congregational Church, nor its form of government. Through such avenues of cooperation we may also provide necessary services including: aviation, broadcasting, medicine, relief, and education, etc. to enhance the effectiveness of the mission effort.

706.6 Committees: Field and Function Committees shall be formed to provide input, support, and accountability for the global ministries of the Evangelical Congregational Church.

707 Leadership Commission

707.1 The Leadership Commission serves the local church by recruiting, assessing, and training pastoral leaders within the Evangelical Congregational Church.

707.2 The commission shall also provide leadership resources and training for local church lay leaders.

707.3 The Leadership Commission may serve as a resource to the Conference Relations Committee and its respective teams and the Stationing Committee. These are Standing Committees of the National Conference and report directly to the conference. This commission may also serve as a resource to the Nominating Committee but it, too, is a Standing Committee of the National Conference.

707.4 The Leadership Commission will have direct oversight and responsibility for the following programs:

- a. Leadership Training: The commission will oversee the Local Preacher's Course of Study, the Evangelical Leadership Academy, pastor's reading programs and other leadership training programs;
- b. Transitional Ministry: The commission shall implement and oversee the transitional ministry program of the church by providing for the recruitment and training of transitional pastors. (See Conference Special Rules, 905)

707.5 The commission will review and, as needed, revise and expand the brochure series "So You're A..." which explains various Evangelical Congregational leadership roles and "Steps to Ministry" which explains the steps to licensed and ordained ministry.

707.6 Chaplaincy: The commission will appoint a Chaplaincy Committee to develop the chaplaincy ministry of the church (military and other types of chaplaincy). The Bishop will continue to serve as the denominational endorser for military chaplaincy.

707.7 Seminary-Church Partnership: The Leadership Commission will develop the partnership of the Evangelical Congregational Church with its seminary, Evangelical Theological Seminary, through regular dialogues focusing on curriculum development, financial support and trustee recruitment. This commission will provide Evangelical Congregational personnel to assist in faculty/administrative search committees and educational task forces.

707.8 Lay Education: The Leadership Commission will also seek to meet the longstanding need for lay education and training.

710 CHAPTER II - BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE EVANGELICAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

710.1 Purpose

The Board of Trustees of the Evangelical Theological Seminary shall provide an institution of training where Evangelical Congregational candidates for the ministry and mission field may obtain instruction in the doctrine and practice of the Christian faith.

710.2 Membership

It shall consist of:

710.2.1 Eight (8) itinerant elders and eight (8) lay people, all of whom shall be members in good standing of the Evangelical Congregational Church who shall be elected to four year terms by the members of the National Conference of the Evangelical Congregational Church and shall serve until their successors are elected.
