

Ron and Brenda Anderson Missionaries to Europe

Living in Madrid, Spain, Ron and Brenda are missionaries to Europe at large, having served with the E.C. denomination since 1978 under the European Christian Mission International (ECMI) in church planting.

Ron is the European director of field ministries, overseeing that ECMI arrives at the church planting goals that we have proposed, that we are functioning as a team, working in proper structures, and developing good partnerships. Brenda is the member care coordinator, helping missionaries develop the resiliency and capacities needed to sacrifice and minister to others. That is their official job description, but for fun, Ron is deacon of missions in the “Cristo Vive” Church in Madrid, and Brenda ministers to women in the nearby federal prison. They are also working with others to plant a church in their area of Madrid, where no Evangelical Church exists.

Ron and Brenda have 3 grown children: Rachel Whitaker, married to B.J., E.C. missionaries to Spain, Jenny Biddulph, married to Phil and working in Columbia, South Carolina, and Mark, studying at the St. Louis University’s Madrid campus.

ECMI is currently working in 18 countries of Europe, with approaching 200 workers and partners from 20 countries around the world serving with us. We operate in partnership with supporting churches, like-minded organisations and local denominations.
