

GLOBAL MINISTRIES COMMISSION

of the Evangelical Congregational Church

Empowering National Churches • Facilitating Mission Workers • Ministering to the Marginalized

David and Emily Hershey

David Hershey grew up in Trinity EC Church in Manheim and is forever grateful for the ministry of that community in his life. Working on campus, Dave is proud to be a commissioned missionary in the EC church. Dave got involved in campus ministry with Christian Student Fellowship as a student at Penn State. After graduating from Penn State University (2002) with a B.A. in religious studies, Dave continued his education at Lincoln Christian Seminary (Lincoln, IL) where he earned the Master of Divinity degree in 2005 (He also earned Masters of Arts in Church History and Historical Theology in 2009, working on it part-time while doing campus ministry...and he would love to talk to you about history and theology if interested). While in seminary he served as preaching minister at Cheneyville Christian Church in Hoopeston, IL and as youth minister at New Community Christian Church in Morris, IL (where he was ordained into the ministry). Through this all Dave came to realize that he loves hanging out with college students, and that God was calling him back to CSF.

Christian Student Fellowship exists on the college campus to be a place for students to find Christian community. CSF welcomes all people providing a place for growth for believers while in college and a place for honest questions from those outside the faith. The purpose of CSF is to get all people, whoever they are, closer to Jesus in the hopes of preparing them for volunteer ministry in the local church upon graduation. CSF meets for Bible study, prayer, and worship every week.

Dave and Emily Livrone met when he was a senior and she was a freshman. After David went to seminary, their relationship took on a long-distance character for three years. Emily earned her B.S. in Spanish from Penn State in 2005. She is certified to teach Spanish and English as a Second Language. Emily currently teaches Spanish and ESL at Agora Cyber Charter school and is working on her Masters of Education at Kutztown University..

Dave and Emily both have a passion for Christ and seek to serve him in the vocation that he has called them to. They were married on March 25, 2006 and reside in Wyomissing, PA. Dave and Emily have a three-legged dog named Skippy and expect their first child in May, 2011.